

REQUEST FOR RE-ENTRY: NON-DEGREE STATUS

PROCEDURAL GUIDELINES

- 1) This petition is required for students who have completed a bachelor's degree at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and are requesting to take additional course work (not the semester immediately following degree conferral); or who have previously been classified as non-degree and desire to take additional coursework in the College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences at non-degree status.
- 2) It is your responsibility to include any supporting documentation with this request at the time of submission. Examples of supporting documentation include unofficial transcripts from other institutions attended, verification of military service or employment.
- 3) A response will be sent to the email listed on this form within five business days upon submission of completed petition.

Due to federal privacy laws (FERPA), the information in and status of your petition cannot be discussed with anyone other than you as the student without a signed release form.
